

Produced by Local Concepts LLC

Sustainable Agriculture with or without Labor?

Chesapeake Foodshed Network Coffee Talk Webinar

October 7, 2016

Resource Experts: Jessica Culley and Leila Borrero Krouse

CATA - The Farmworkers Support Committee

Additional resources

CATA Website: www.cata-farmworkers.org

Agricultural Justice Project Website: www.agriculturaljusticeproject.org

Facts about Farmworkers – Student Action for Farmworkers –
<https://saf-unite.org/content/united-states-farmworker-factsheet>

12 Disturbing Facts about Farm Labor Conditions –
http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2013/01/15/12-disturbing-facts-about-farm-labor-conditions_n_2479452.html

Farmers Sign on to the Agricultural Justice Project –
<http://smallfarms.cornell.edu/quarterly/archive-2/fall-2016/>

Hands that Feed Us – Challenges and Opportunities for Workers Along the Food Chain
<http://foodchainworkers.org/wp-content/uploads/2012/06/Hands-That-Feed-Us-Report.pdf>

Fair Food Video Series:
<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCRRamSBJV6x4KeBIbabAPJQ>

Hungry for Justice: Spotlight on the South: <https://vimeo.com/94461946>

Labor and the Locavore, Margaret Gray –

Chesapeake Foodshed Network

Catalyzing connections and collaborations that build a sustainable, resilient, inclusive and equitable regional food system in the Chesapeake Bay watershed.

Produced by Local Concepts LLC

Produced by Local Concepts LLC

<http://civileats.com/2014/05/06/labor-and-the-locavore-farm-work-in-new-york-state/>

<https://www.amazon.com/Labor-Locavore-Making-Comprehensive-Ethic/dp/0520276698>

Migrant Clinician's Network – Information on Farmworker Health –

<http://www.migrantclinician.org/>

Chesapeake Foodshed Network

Catalyzing connections and collaborations that build a sustainable, resilient, inclusive and equitable regional food system in the Chesapeake Bay watershed.

Produced by Local Concepts LLC