

Friday March 9, 2018
12:00-1:00 PM EST

Walking the Path towards Community Ownership: Lessons from the D.C. Food System

CFN Webinar Featuring:

dcgreens

Resource Experts

Lauren Shweder Biel Executive Director & Co-founder
lauren@dcgreens.org

Asha Carter Community Engagement Specialist & CFN Steering Team member
asha@dcgreens.org

Mary Alice Reilly Volunteer Coordinator
maryalice@dcgreens.org

Dominique Hazzard Community Engagement Specialist
dominique@dcgreens.org

BIOS

Lauren Shweder Biel is the Executive Director and co-founder of DC Greens. Lauren is the Co-Chair of D.C.'s "Diabesity" Committee within the Department of Health, and served two terms on the D.C. Mayor's Commission on Healthy Youth and Schools. Prior to DC Greens, Lauren worked at Sesame Workshop in the International Education, Research and Outreach department. Lauren has a B.A. from Princeton University, and an M.Phil. in Anthropology from NYU with a focus on Culture and Media.

Asha Carter is a Steering Team member of the Chesapeake Foodshed Network as well as a Community Engagement Specialist at DC Greens, overseeing the Community Advocates Program. Prior to joining the team, Asha served in the Obama Administration as the Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. She is an alumna of Wellesley College, where she www.chesapeakefoodshed.net

Produced by Local Concepts LLC earned her B.A. in Peace and Justice Studies with a concentration in Urban Development and Sustainability.

Dominique Hazzard is a Community Engagement Specialist at DC Greens, overseeing the Market Champion Program. Prior to joining the DC Greens team, Dominique was a Bill Emerson National Hunger Fellow with the Congressional Hunger Center and worked as Diversity & Inclusion Coordinator with the global public health organization GlobeMed. Dominique is a writer, a community organizer, and a proud second generation resident of Anacostia in Southeast D.C. She holds a degree in Environmental Studies from Wellesley College.

Mary Alice Reilly is the Volunteer Coordinator at DC Greens, managing the Farmers Market Brigade. Prior to joining the team, Mary Alice managed farmers' markets in underserved DC communities with Dreaming Out Loud, and served as a coordinator with the New Entry Sustainable Farming Project and the Brown Market Shares program. Mary Alice has a B.A. in Environmental Studies from Brown University.

